ABOUT

Mogul in the Making is a growing talent and event management company dedicated to assisting talent in reaching their full potential. With certainty, we believe that with our plan, the client will achieve their individual career goals, dreams, and much more. Mogul in the Making's current focus is media talent, artists, and models.

MISSION

Mogul in the Making's mission is to be the leader in quality talent and events management while spreading good vibes in the process. The vision is for both parties to create a lasting partnership as we develop and strategically guide our clients towards their goal. Depending on the goals of the client, a unique development plan will be created, the goals and expectations will be set, and Mogul in the Making will then commit to a professional follow through.
